

Yankee Doodle.

1. Ye gallant sons of lib-er-ty, Who bravely have defended Your country's rights by land and sea, And to her cause attended, With Yankee doodle doo, Yankee doodle dandy, Our tars will show the haughty foe, Columbia's sons are handy.

CONTINUED.

- 2 Upon the ocean's wide domain,
Our tars are firm and true, sirs,
And freedom's cause they will maintain,
With yankee doodle doo, sirs.
Yankee doodle, &c.
- 3 The fourth day of July 'tis said,
That day will Britain rue, sirs,
An independent tune we play'd,
Call'd yankee doodle doo, sirs.
Yankee doodle, &c.
- 4 Columbia's sons did then declare,
They would be independent,
And for King George they would not care,
Nor yet for his descendant.
Yankee doodle, &c.
- 5 For the regent thought he'd sent
A fleet to take our few, sirs,
But when to sea our sailors went,
Play'd Yankee doodle doo, sirs.
Yankee doodle, &c.
- 6 The British tars think that they can
Whip Yankees two to one, sirs,
But only give us man for man,
They'll see what we can do, sirs.
Yankee doodle, &c.
- 7 Our tars do care no more for France
Than Britain, is most true, sirs,
And can make any nation dance,
To yankee doodle doo, sirs.
Yankee doodle, &c.